News for ALL Women

Annual Ecumenical Brunch on Tuesday April 13th

Back by Popular Demand, Betsy Johnson, from Bethany Church will be speaking to us. She will be telling us about the ECHO Project. She works with that group whose purpose is to eradicate world hunger. We invite the women of area churches to this annual community event, and certainly hope to have a large group from our own church. Come enjoy a delicious brunch & learn about this project. Men, you are welcome, just know you'll be in the minority! There will be a Free will offering for mission. Reservations are appreciated. Call Millie @ 434-1168.

April 23-24 is Nicolet/Winnebago Spiritual Growth Retreat. You may choose the whole event on Friday evening and Saturday, or just Saturday if that is what your schedule permits. The theme is "The Spirituality of Power & Freedom". The Saturday sessions will be led by Sister Judy Miller who is the Director of Spiritual Outreach at St Norbert College. Registration forms and rides are available from Kay @ 434-1168. Registrations are due April 5th. The event will be at Lake Lucerne Camp & Retreat Center, one of our beautiful United Methodist Camps at Neshkoro, WI. Come and enjoy a fabulous weekend retreat!

April 30 - May 2nd is National UMW Assembly in St. Louis MO, held once every 4 years. Pat Denissen and Kay Waugh will be attending with the Wisconsin delegation and look forward to an inspiring and exciting event celebrating, learning and growing the mission work of our organization.

May 11 Local unit meeting at 10 am with a program on 'Elder Abuse' presented by Alice Byrnes. Everyone is welcome!

May 16 Please mark PLANT SALE on your calendar! This is an all-church event with all proceeds going to our debt reduction Fund. You can come to have Booyah and get exciting new plants for your yard at very reasonable prices. As we get outside in our yards now, let's be thinking of what needs to be divided or moved, and plan for what we can bring to church to share this day. All plants should be labeled clearly.

June 8th 11:30 am Potluck Picnic at Brookview Meadows, to share with our members and friends there.
